Entrance Hymn:

'Christ be near at either hand'

Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind, before me stand,
Christ with me where e'er I go,

Christ around, above below.

Christ be in my heart and mind,
Christ within my soul enshrined,
Christ control my wayward heart; Christ abide and ne'er depart.

Christ my life and only way,

Christ my lantern night and day;
Christ be my unchanging friend,
Guide and shepherd to the end.

Recessional Hymn

Here I am Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,

I have heard my people cry,

All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, is it I Lord. I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.

I the Lord of wind and flame. I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied. I will live my life to them Whom shall I send? R

Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

The 'I' word!

We know this story well. The most important letter in 'it' is 'I'. Jesus identifies himself with the people he is talking about. He doesn't say people were in prison and you visited them, or sick or naked. He says I who am in prison, sick or naked. It's even more than being a brother or sister of Jesus. He identifies with each of us especially in need. Created as we are in the image of God, Jesus sees right through us to see God. God is the divine life of God in each person.

That makes the difference. We don't help the needy person only because he or she is needy, but because each is in the image of God and Jesus sees him or her and says 'that's me.'

This can be a programme for life. For the young - can you make a decision for your life that includes deep care from your love of those in need? For those in their busy lives already and who have chosen their way - how can you show deep care for those in need. For the elderly - can you pray for those in need each day and encourage those more active to care for them?

Did you feed the hungry,
give drink to the thirsty,
welcome the stranger,
care for the sick and
visit the prisoner?
Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come -
The reign of equality, justice, peace and love.

Feast Days

Monday 23rd November* -St. Columban (also known as Columbanus)(born c. 543, Leinster died November 23, 615, Bobbio [Italy]; was an Irish Christian abbot and writer and one of the greatest missionaries of the Celtic Church. He initiated a revival of spirituality on the European continent. He is venerated as the patron saint of European unity and motorcyclists and is invoked against floods. Educated in the monastery of Bangor, County Down, Columban left Ireland about 590 with 12 monks For the disciples who came to follow his rule, Columban built the nearby monasteries of Luxovium and Fontaines. Unpopular because of his attacks on degeneracy in the Burgundian court and among local clergy, he was indicted in 603 before a synod of French bishops for keeping Easter according to the Celtic tradition (which used a different calculation from the Roman church for the festival's date). He went with St. Gall and other monks to Switzerland, where he preached Christianity to the Germanic people. He went to Italy and founded the monastery of Bobbio (c. 612–614).Columban's works include poems, letters, and sermons.

Parish Bulletin
22 November 2026
Feast of Christ the King

In 325, during the First Ecumenical Council the dogma regarding Christ's divinity was defined to counteract the Arian heresy: "Christ is God, light from light, true God from true God".

1600 years later, in 1925, Pope Pius XI proclaimed that the best way to defeat injustice was by acknowledging the kingship of Christ. "For people are instructed in the truths of faith, and brought to appreciate the inner joys of religion far more effectually by the annual celebration of our sacred mysteries than by any official pronouncement of the teaching of the Church. Such pronouncements usually reach only a few and the more learned among the faithful; feasts reach them all; the former speak but once, the latter speak every year - in fact, forever. The church's teaching affects the mind primarily; her feasts affect both mind and heart, and have a salutary effect upon the whole of man's nature" (Encyclical Quas primas, 11 December 1925).

Let us pray:
Jesus, today we crown you King and ask you to be Lord of our lives.
Amen.

Jesus' kingship reminds us that, unlike worldly rulers who often exercise power through force, the kingship of Jesus is defined by service, self-sacrifice, truth, love, justice and the cross. This feast can inspire us to prioritise divine law over blind political loyalty.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reflection by Fr Laurence Freeman

The wisdom of Jesus is absolutely simple and uncompromising in pointing the way to the wholeness of the Kingdom: we must leave our self behind. In doing so we do gain it a hundredfold because we find ourselves in everything around us, in every person, in every situation, in each successive mo-ment. We see our self in Christ and God in Christ in everyone and everything. Maybe this will unfold vaguely at first but clarity of vision is growing. The importance of the mantra is absolute if we are committed to total simplicity. It is the mantra which allows us to keep the attention pure and directed God-ward in Christ. The mantra highlights the importance, too, of community because in becoming attentive to others, their real presence, the loving presence of Christ in others, a community is created that is turned with collective attentiveness — the prayer of the church towards Christ.

Feast of Christ the King 22nd. November 2026

Reflection: "What are you looking for?" (Jn 1:38). What a beautiful question! These are the first words spoken by Jesus in John's Gospel. I would like each of you to hear that question as though Jesus were asking you today: What are you looking for? What do you hope to find? What do you hope for in life? Pope Leo

Gospel Mt 25:31-46 Reflection: 15th November

What is the Kingdom of God?
What is the Kingdom of Christ the King?

The Kingdom of God is a space. It exists in every home where parents and children love each other. It exists in every region and country that cares for its weak and vulnerable. It exists in every parish that reaches out to the needy. The Kingdom of God is a time. It happens whenever someone feeds a hungry person, or shelters a homeless person, or shows care to a neglected person. It happens whenever we overturn an unjust law, or correct an injustice, or avert a war. It happens whenever people join in the struggle to overcome poverty, to erase ignorance, to pass on the faith.

The Kingdom of God is in the past (in the life and work of Jesus of Nazareth); It is in the present (in the work of the church and in the efforts of many others to create a world of goodness and justice);

It is in the future (reaching its completion in the age to come).

The Kingdom of God is a condition. Its symptoms are love, justice and peace. Jesus Christ is King!

We pray today that God may free all the world to rejoice in his peace, to glory in his justice, to live in his love.

FIRST READING — Ez 34:11-12,15-17

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view.
I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep,
I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks.
I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong.
I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.
As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this:
I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM — Ps 22:1-3,5-6

Response:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose. (R.)

2. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name. (R.)

3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R.)

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R.)

SECOND READING — 1 Cor 15:20-26,28

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Mt 25:31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left.

'Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me."

'Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me."

'And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(all bow during the next two lines)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

As we offer you, O Lord, the sacrifice by which the human race is reconciled to you,
we humbly pray,
that your Son himself may bestow on all nations
the gifts of unity and peace.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Lord sits as King for ever.
The Lord will bless his people with peace.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Having received the food of immortality,
we ask, O Lord,
that, glorying in obedience to the commands of Christ, the King of the universe,
we may live with him eternally in his heavenly Kingdom.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.

Sunday Message
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
THE WORD
Year A • 22 November 2026 • Colour: White • Psalter Week 2

JUDGEMENT DAY

MT 25:31-46

Today we celebrate the feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, which always falls on the last Sunday of the liturgical year. The Gospel begins with a majestic scene describing the return of the Son of Man in glory. Jesus will end his earthly life in the humiliation of the passion and crucifixion.

He will depart from this world unobtrusively, saying farewell to his own in the obscurity of a hillside in Galilee. But his return will be glorious, as he comes escorted by the angels to take his seat for judgment. Before him have gathered all the nations. Like a shepherd at day's end, he separates sheep from goats. He addresses both of them. The speeches are substantially the same. What differs is their reaction.

The first group consists of the sheep. His message to them is positive: they are blessed by the Father; a place has been prepared for them in God's kingdom since the foundation of the world. They have passed six vital tests: they have fed the king when he was hungry, given him drink when he was thirsty, welcomed him when he was a stranger, clothed him when he was naked, and visited him when he was sick and in prison. This comes as a surprise to the sheep. They have no memory of ever having served the king in any of these ways. He tells them that as long as they did it to the most vulnerable of his brothers and sisters, they did it to him.

Next, he addresses those on the left. He applies the same test to them, but they fail it. Again, they are taken aback: they have never seen the king in any kind of need. They are told that when they failed to care for their weak brothers and sisters, they failed to care for the king. The scene ends with the groups going their separate ways – the goats to eternal punishment and the just to eternal life.

The meaning is clear. The parables of the end times have spoken about the need to be ready for the coming of the Son of Man. It is now unmistakable what that readiness entails. Jesus began his teaching by proclaiming beatitudes that would mark out his disciples. He ends his teaching with a set of six works of mercy that are a perfect match for the beatitudes. Matthew is a practical teacher. He wants to leave his readers in no doubt about what following Jesus demands. ■

PRAY

Pope Francis said today's Gospel can be summed up in one golden rule: "In everything, do to others as you would have them do to you." Pray that you will live by this golden rule.

SAY

"Lord, help me to see you especially in those in greatest need. Give me a big heart. Amen."

REFLECT

Leaving the prison on the Thursday before he died, Pope Francis said that whenever he visits such a place, he asks himself, why them and not me? He always tried to put himself in other people's shoes.

It explained his concern for the poor and for migrants: "The only proper attitude is to stand in the shoes of those brothers and sisters of ours who risk their lives to offer a future to their children," he said. "Can we not realise that this is exactly what Jesus demands of us when he tells us that in welcoming the stranger we welcome him?"

Why them and not me? The Christian is one who stands in the other person's shoes. This attitude is what separates the sheep from the goats. It is the basis on which we will be judged.

St John of the Cross summed up the judgment scene quite simply: "In the evening of life, we shall be judged on love." ■

DO

Try to see the face of Christ in every person you meet.

LEARN

Pope Pius XI inaugurated this feast in 1925, during a period of increasing political turmoil. Mussolini was in power in Italy. Hitler was building up the Nazi Party in Germany. Stalin was consolidating his position in the Soviet Union. Democracies were crumbling across Europe, and populism, militant nationalism and antisemitism were on the rise. Pope Pius was declaring to the world that, despite dictatorships and false values, Jesus Christ remained King of the Universe and a model for how authority should be exercised.

Sadly, Pius XI could have created this feast for the world of today. There is so much fear and anxiety about, with conflict in so many lands, increased political polarisation and intolerance, national leaders who abuse their position and treat their opponents with contempt, a world more fraught now than at any time since the end of the Cold War.

Christ the King is the model for how power and authority should be exercised, now and always, and the model for how we should relate to one another. He shows us the true meaning of leadership.

Reflection on the Readings this Sunday

The Lord is my Shepherd

On the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, in this last Sunday of Year A, the image of a shepherd echoes throughout the readings. Christ's Kingship is one of tender care and love of his flock.

In the First Reading the prophet Ezekiel describes how the Lord will seek us out when we are lost. He will rescue, heal, care, and feed us.

Psalm 23 affirms this prophecy. The Lord leads us to lush pastures, revives and anoints us with love. He desires that we dwell with him forever.

In the letter to the Corinthians (Second Reading) Paul teaches that Christ has overcome all things, even death. In Christ we are fully alive. Christ is all, and Christ is in all.

In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples a powerful teaching about the nature of his kingship. Christ our King is to be found in the stranger, the outcast, the weak and the vulnerable. We will be judged by how we treat these amongst us.

This week, let us pray for the grace to become compassionate shepherds of one another, reverencing the presence of Christ within us, and serving Christ in the most vulnerable amongst us.

Service of the Healing of the Generations (Family Tree)

The Service of the Healing of the Generations takes place next Sunday 29th November commencing with Mass at 7pm and concludes at 8pm. Access on the webcam.

SUNDAY 22 NOV '26

Year A | Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

www.holychildnativity.ie

FROM DEACON DAMIAN MURRAY

A Kingdom Built on Love

This Sunday, the final Sunday of the Church's liturgical year, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. In our Mass readings, we are presented with a striking picture of God's rule. Our First Reading from the prophet Ezekiel portrays God as a tender Shepherd searching for His scattered sheep, while St Paul reminds us in the Second Reading that Christ's reign is a decisive victory over death itself.

Yet in our Gospel from St Matthew (25:31–46), this Shepherd-King appears as the universal Judge. Throughout His earthly ministry, Jesus firmly rejected political power and worldly dominance, declaring that His kingdom is "not of this world". Instead, Christ reigns through supreme, self-giving love, culminating on the Cross—a Passion that St Matthew places immediately after today's Gospel passage.

Because Christ's kingship is rooted entirely in divine love, the criterion for the Last Judgment is remarkably clear: concrete charity toward the "least" of our brothers and sisters. The King identifies Himself completely with the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick, and the imprisoned.

Notice the genuine surprise of both the righteous and the unrighteous in this parable. Neither group realised they were encountering the King Himself in the poor. This teaches us an essential truth about faith: authentic Christian charity is never calculated, performative, or self-serving. It simply responds with compassion wherever there is human need.

As we bring our liturgical year to a close, today's readings challenge us to examine our hearts. Where is Christ knocking at our door today—disguised in the vulnerable, the lonely, or the struggling within our own parish and community? When we serve them with quiet, unassuming love, we welcome the King Himself.

TO PONDER THIS WEEK

Christ the King hides in the hungry, the lonely and the stranger. Whose face might he be wearing when he comes to me this week?

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"In the evening of life, we will be judged on love alone."

St John of the Cross

SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

Today we close the Church's year with the Solemnity of Christ the King. Pope Pius XI instituted the feast in 1925 (Quas Primas) to remind a troubled world that Christ reigns in truth, justice, love and peace. His throne is the Cross, and we serve him whenever we care for "the least of these" (Mt 25:40). Next Sunday, 29th November, Advent begins.

CHRISTMAS FAIR DONATIONS

If you would like to donate any new unwanted gifts which we could use as spot prizes for our Spin the Wheel at this year's Christmas Fair, we would be grateful to receive them at the Parish Centre reception in Whitehall & Beaumont any weekday morning between 9am and 1pm.

Christmas Fair: Sunday 29th November, 10am – 2.30pm, Beaumont Parish Pastoral Centre

The Word of the Lord

Readings for the Solemnity of Christ the King

FIRST READING — Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17

The Lord will judge between sheep and sheep

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.
As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Psalm 22(23)

℟ :The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING — 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28

Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death, for everything is to be put under his feet. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Matthew 25:31-46

I was naked and you clothed me; sick, and you visited me

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left.
'Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me."
'Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me."
'And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH — The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Christ the King: A Kingdom of Service and Peace

As we gather for the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, on the final Sunday of the Church year, we are invited to look at what kind of king Jesus truly is. Earthly power often relies on force, status, and control. Jesus shows us a different path: a kingship rooted in truth, mercy, forgiveness, and humble service.

Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, this feast reminds us that our deepest allegiance belongs to Christ. His kingdom is not built on walls or divisions, but on justice, peace, and reconciliation. Whenever we care for someone who is lonely, speak with honesty, or offer forgiveness, we help make that kingdom visible in our homes and parish.

As the liturgical year closes and Advent draws near, let us ask Christ to reign more fully in our hearts and guide our parish community in faith and charity.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, rule over our hearts with your truth and mercy. Guide our families and our parish to live in your peace, serve one another with generosity, and look forward in hope to your coming. Amen.

We congratulate Fr Eugene on his recent graduation with a Licentiate in Divinity (Pastoral Theology) from Maynooth.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Fr Eugene for the support he provides to us here. It's very much appreciated.

Our Lady Immaculate Senior National School, Darndale - Annual Appeal

Dear parishioners,

Our annual toy appeal is well underway now and we want to thank everyone who has donated already. We have received over €2,100 so far and we are very hopeful that we will reach our target of €3,000. We received this message from the parents and staff of OLI earlier this week.

We and our families are so appreciative of this extremely generous offer. Things that are on the top of our families' lists are:

small lego sets that 7-11 year olds can complete independently cosy socks, blankets and hot water bottles (boys and girls) hair clips, hair accessories, hair brushes toiletry sets aimed at tweens/teens (girls and boys) art, Crayola and Playdoh sets creative/making sets
sharpies and other markers (crafty co)
cosy co colouring books
squishmellows and teddies

We loved the footballs too last year, they were amazing and so appreciated by all the kids. We don't have access to our field anymore so most of our kids are playing football on the road/tarmac areas so if we could ask for "street footballs" and goalie gloves that would be great.

You can make a donation at any time through the Parish Office or by using the donate facility on the parish website or by scanning the QR code below.

Toys and other items may be dropped into the Parish Office. There has always been a generous contribution in the past by you, the Parishioners, for which we wish to express our gratitude!

Many thanks, Parish Pastoral Council

Please scan to donate to the toy appeal. Thank you.

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING – 2026

The Feast of Christ the King brings the Church's liturgical year to an end. We begin a new season next weekend on the First Sunday of Advent. What a lovely way to end the Church's Year with this Feast. The Church's Liturgical year takes us on a journey - we hear about God entering into our human condition: we read about Christ's life of ministry, service and sacrifice: we are caught up in a great drama of God-with-Us in and through Jesus, his son. We are mystified, inspired and touched by the unfolding of God's relationship with us. We who are followers of Christ and who endeavour to live in God's expectation of us find renewed strength as we contemplate the Sacred Mysteries handed down to us from the beginning of the early Church. Today's Gospel invites us to reflect on our living out of the gift of our faith and it challenges us about the quality of our relationship with God.

The Gospel of Matthew gives us a set of human needs which require appropriate responses – those of Jesus. The responses asked of us do not require great feats of heroism, no great trials or triumphant deeds, no great daring or imagining. The responses are simple and do not go beyond the capacity of any human being. The actions are the responses of those who "pay attention" to what happens in the world of the familiar and who are moved to answer the needs which we see around us. For Jesus, what happens in the world of the familiar has an eternity of importance about it: little acts of kindness, words of hope and encouragement spoken, feeding the hungry, sharing our time with the elderly, the sick, the housebound, giving a little compassion to the stranger at our door, giving a drink to those who thirst – all of these have an eternal value. Charity, compassion and caring are grounds enough for entering fully into God's kingdom.

The Gospel reminds us that any act of love, caring and compassion given to those in need are given to Jesus himself. "Whatever you do for the least of these sisters and brothers of mine, you do it unto me." Saint Mother Theresa summarised her mission in using the five words of Jesus: "YOU. DID. IT. UNTO ME." These words formed the entire foundation of her Missionaries of Charity. The great Christian author, Father Henri Nouwen said*: "The way of Christ is one of a downward mobility. If we are to be like Jesus, we are to move downward to serve, to give and to sacrifice. Compassion challenges us to cry out with those who are in misery, to mourn with those who are lonely, to weep with those in tears. Compassion requires us to be weak with the weak, vulnerable with the vulnerable, powerless with the powerless. It means full immersion into the condition of being human."

We are not called to measure who deserves compassion or care. We are called to lift the weary, help mend broken lives, sit gently with those who hurt, embrace those who are lonely and to live in such a way as to make a difference to those we encounter. Let this Feast of Christ the King compel us to imitate Christ in all things.

Feast Days This Week

Sunday 22nd November – Feast of Christ the King

The Feast of Christ the King takes place on the last Sunday of the liturgical year in the Catholic faith marking the culmination of the Church year and emphasizing that Christ's reign is eternal, superior to any earthly power. Originally a Roman Catholic feast, it is now observed by Christians of all denominations as a way to recognise and honour Jesus Christ as the "King of Kings". It is a way to remind the increasingly secular world of the importance of God and his teachings

Church art Calendars 2027 are available in the Repository & the Parish Office at €2.00 each

Reflections for the Feast Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On the Nature of True Faith

Amidst the mockery of leaders and soldiers, a condemned criminal sees the truth: Jesus's kingdom is not of this world. His simple plea, 'Remember me,' reveals a faith that needs no miracles, only the recognition of a Savior in the most unexpected place.

On the Immediate Grace of Jesus

Jesus offers no probation or purgatory to the thief, only immediate grace. 'Today you will be with me.' This is the stunning promise of salvation: it is a gift received in a moment, based not on a reformed life, but on faith in the person of Christ.

On the Depth of Christ's Ministry

Even in His excruciating suffering, Jesus ministers. He extends compassion and assurance to a fellow sufferer. This shows that His heart for the broken and lost never stopped, demonstrating that His mission of salvation was actively fulfilled even on the cross.

On the Hope for the Undeserving

The thief admits he is getting what his deeds deserve, but Jesus offers what he doesn't. This is the gospel's core: paradise is not for the self-righteous, but for those who, in humility, cast themselves on the mercy of Jesus, the sinless King.

Sunday's Liturgy of the Word

ENTRANCE

Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand,
Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, light of my heart

FIRST READING Ezek. 34:11-12.15-17

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel.

The Lord says this; I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them. As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this; I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.
The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Ps. 22:1-3.5-6.R.v.1

(R) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. (R)

2. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. (R)

3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. (R)

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

SECOND READING 1 Cor. 15:20-26.28

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order. Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be the subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.
The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mk. 11:10

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David! Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt. 25:31-46

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your Spirit
Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one form another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me," then the virtuous will say to him in reply. "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; thirsty and gave you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome, naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come, to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.
The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

The Prayer After Communion: "Let Us Pray"

What is Happening Communion has been received. The sacred vessels are quietly purified. A moment of silence settles over the congregation and then the priest says once more: "Let us pray." The Prayer After Communion is brief, almost understated. Yet it carries something important: it asks God that what we have just received might bear fruit in our lives. We did not simply attend a ceremony. Something happened. The prayer acknowledges this and asks that it not stop here - that the grace of the Eucharist might continue working in us as we return to ordinary life.

How We Should Respond This prayer is easily missed - we are still settling after Communion, perhaps still absorbed in personal thanksgiving. But it deserves our attention. It is the Church's collective voice asking: "Lord, may this change us."

That is a prayer worth making our own. Not just at Mass, but in the moments after

- in the car, on the walk home, over Sunday lunch.

Living This at Mass After Mass this Sunday, carry the question with you: what am I asking God to do with what I have just received? The Eucharist is not a conclusion - it is a commissioning. The Prayer After Communion points us forward, back into the world, changed.

November Reflection

Death - Resurrection

We think of death as coming to destroy;

Let us rather picture Christ as coming to save.

We think of death as ending; Let us rather think of life as beginning.

We think of losing; Let us think of gaining.

We think of parting; Let us think of meeting.

And as the voice of death whispers:

"You must go from earth." Let us hear the voice of Christ saying:

"You are but coming to me." Amen.

POPE LEO XIV

Wherever we may find ourselves, by opening our hearts to God we can live out the fundamental relationship that enables every human being to reflect the divine image. Through our bond with the Trinity, our hearts are healed and elevated by grace; and we can then open ourselves to our brothers and sisters in order to heal, love, and serve them with the goodness of the Lord.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION – THE THREE TENORS
This year, we are delighted to welcome back the Three Tenors as part of our Christmas celebrations. They will give a concert in St. Teresa's Church on Sunday 13th December at 7:30pm. Tickets, €33 each, are available in the parish shop this weekend or from the Parish Office during the week.

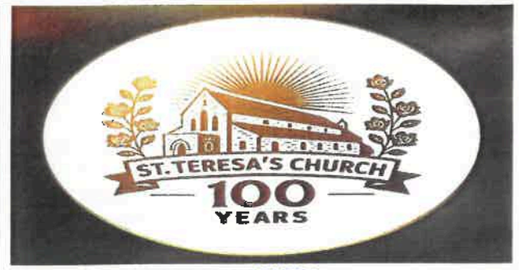
NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOWS
Two new stained glass windows have been installed in our parish church to commemorate the worldwide Aids epidemic. The windows are an opportunity to remember in prayer and reflection all those who died of Aids, all those in Church and State who cared for them and all family and friends who grieve the great loss of loved ones. The windows have been funded by a very kind parish benefactor and constructed by Capital Glass of Leonards Corner. We will hold a prayer service on United Nations World Aids Day the 1st December to mark their installation.

NOVEMBER
ALTAR LIST OF THE DEAD ENVELOPES
Envelopes are available in the church and can be returned to any member of the Parish Team or placed in the safe in the Church.

Please remember in your prayers deceased Marist Fathers who worked in this parish: Jim Connington, Tim Kenny, Gus O Herlihy, Ray Murray, Jimmy Carr, Bobby Kelly, Liam Deaton & Jim O Connell.

THE NOVEMBER TREE OF REMEMBRANCE
The November Tree of Remembrance is in place now near the entrance to the church. You are invited to write the names of your deceased relatives and friends on the labels and to place them on the tree for prayerful remembrance by the parishioners and friends of St. Teresa's. November is also a lovely time to visit a loved one's grave.

RECENTLY BAPTISED
We congratulate Luke Phillips who was baptised into the Christian community recently. We wish every good grace on him as he grows in love & knowledge of God.



PHOTOGRAPHS OF PARISHIONERS
As part of our Centenary celebrations, we have a display of photographs of parishioners who have worshipped here over the years but who have gone to their eternal reward. Please contact our parish office via email or drop in to the parish office in person with any photos you are willing to have displayed. They will be scanned and returned to you.

RECENTLY DECEASED
Please pray for Gavin Duffy, late of Cork Street, whose funeral took place on Tuesday. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN FRONT OF THE PARISH HOUSE.
Is it a car park? A graveyard? A tennis court? NO. It is a replacement site for the Site office / Welfare cabins for TOWNLINK who are repairing the Donore Community Centre. At the moment their site office / welfare cabins are located beside the one remaining block of flats. DCC need this space returned by the middle of December in order to prepare for the demolition of the last remaining block of flats in January 2027 and to build the sports pitch. For the past two years we have been unable to maintain that section of the garden satisfactorily, with the roses & shrubs overrun by weeds. It is also the site where the new parish houses will be built in the next two years. We are glad to assist in the repair of the Centre.

DATES FOR THE DIARY
Parish Liturgy Committee: Tues 8th Dec at 6.30pm
Parish Pastoral Council: Thursday 10th Dec. at 7pm

THE KING OF LOVE
The King of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never.
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow,
To rest my soul he leads me;
Where fresh and fertile pastures grow,
With heav'nly food he feeds me.

Perverse and foolish, I have strayed,
But he with love has sought me;
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
With you, dear Lord, beside me;
Your rod and staff my comfort still,
Your cross will ever guide me.

THIS IS MY BODY
This is my body, broken for you,
bringing you wholeness, making you free.
Take it and eat it, and when you do,
do it in love for me.

This is my blood poured out for you,
bringing forgiveness, making you free.
Take it and drink it, and when you do,
do it in love for me.

Filled with my spirit, how you will grow1
You are my branches; I am the tree.
If you are faithful, others will know
You are alive in me.

Love one another; I have loved you,
and I have shown you how to be free;
serve one another, and when you do,
Do it in love for me.
(J. Owens/D.Lundy)

HAIL REDEEMER
Hail ! Redeemer, King Divine!
Priest and Lamb. The throne is thine,
King whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of ever lasting peace.
Angels, saints and nations sing,
Praised be Jesus Christ our King:
Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary.

Eucharistic King, what love
Draws thee daily from above,
Clad in signs of bread and Wine
Feed us, lead us, keep us thine.
Angels, saints and nations sing:
Praised be Jesus Christ, our King:
Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary.

King whose name creation thrills,
Rule our minds, our hearts, our wills,
Till in peace each nation rings,
With thy praises, Kings of kings.
Angels, saints and nations sing:
Praised be Jesus Christ our King:
Lord of Life, earth, sky and sea,
King of Love on Calvary.

Parish Weekly News for
St Benedict's & St Monica's

22nd November 2026 Our Lord Jesus Christ Kind of the Universe/A

Parish Mission Statement

We, as members of St Benedict's & St Monica's Parishes, strive to be a community united in our Catholic Faith, and strengthened by prayer, worship and service. We accept our call to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, working to serve all with justice, peace and love, in the name of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Pastors Desk — The 'I' word!

We know this story well. The most important letter in 'it' is 'I'. Jesus identifies himself with the people he is talking about. He doesn't say people were in prison and you visited them, or sick or naked. He says I who am in prison, sick or naked. It's even more than being a brother or sister of Jesus. He identifies with each of us especially in need. Created as we are in the image of God, Jesus sees right through us to see God. God is the divine life of God in each person.

That makes the difference. We don't help the needy person only because he or she is needy, but because each is in the image of God and Jesus sees him or her and says 'that's me.'

This can be a programme for life. For the young - can you make a decision for your life that includes deep care from your love of those in need? For those in their busy lives already and who have chosen their way - how can you show deep care for those in need. For the elderly - can you pray for those in need each day and encourage those more active to care for them?

Did you feed the hungry,
give drink to the thirsty,
welcome the stranger,
care for the sick and
visit the prisoner?
Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come -
The reign of equality, justice, peace and love.

Review of the Second Quater

What a busy second quarter we've had! Easter fell in this quarter, and the ceremonies were beautifully celebrated and well attended in both St Mary's and St Mochonog's . We have had First Reconciliation, First Communions and Confirmations in St Mary's and St Mochonog's , and First Reconciliation and First Communion in St Patrick's. Congratulations to all. We have had eight Baptisms in the 3 months, and we welcome each one into our faith community. We have had three beautiful weddings and wish all couples a happy and blessed life ahead together. We have also had nine funerals. May each one rest in peace. We have nine grieving families and ask you to keep them in prayer please.
The Living Room met on three occasions between St Mary's and St Patrick's Powerscourt. All special occasions for prayer and friendship. We have had Three Downtime Thursday's (with exposition), The most peaceful evenings you could ever spend.
Exposition has also taken place following the 10am mass in St Mochonog's on Wednesdays and the 10 15 am mass in St Mary's each Friday.
Of course we have had our fundraising concert, celebrating the life and times of Magsie Goor, which, to date, has raised €1910 so far.
The Next two months should be a little calmer but watch out for September!

Kilmacanogue

A very big thank you to Paul Cahill for his great work in trimming the Hedges around St Mochonog's Church grounds. We cannot access the hedges on the car park side without Paul's Machine. Paul donates this work as his contribution to the Parish and does not charge us. Aideen could we please note our appreciation in the Parish newsletter and express our appreciation at Sunday Mass.
Also very happy to report great work carried out in our Graveyard., with removing large waste bank of clay and stones. We then formed a new ramp to the lower field which now provides access to a further 120 Grave spaces. We only have 16 spaces left in the upper field. We are currently using 20 spaces per year.
A big thank you to Ian O Toole Earthworks and Mark Quinn for this great work

An opportunity to say thank you!

The parish will hold a social gathering on Saturday afternoon, 20th September in the Summerhill Hotel for all our wonderful volunteers. It will be an opportunity for all to mix and mingle, and a chance for positive ideas to be exchanged as to how we can continue to keep the show on the road with fewer volunteers. We hope that it may also be an occasion to share some ideas that might help us grow our volunteer base. Keep an eye out for your invitation and please join us if you possibly can at all.

Some Inspiring Words from Pope Leo

The Spirit opens borders, first of all, in our hearts. He is the Gift that opens our lives to love. His presence breaks down our hardness of heart, our narrowness of mind, our selfishness, the fears that enchain us and the narcissism that makes us think only of ourselves. The Holy Spirit comes to challenge us, to make us confront the possibility that our lives are shrivelling up, trapped in the vortex of individualism. Sadly, oddly enough, in a world of burgeoning "social" media, we risk being ever more alone.

The Spirit of God allows us to find a new way of approaching and experiencing life. He puts us in touch with our inmost self, beneath all the masks we wear. He leads us to an encounter with the Lord by teaching us to experience the joy that is his gift. He convinces us, that only by abiding in love, will we receive the strength to remain faithful to his word and to let it transform us.

The Spirit also opens borders in our relationship with others. Jesus tells us that this Gift is the love between him and the Father that comes to dwell within us. We then become capable of opening our hearts to our brothers and sisters, overcoming our rigidity, moving beyond our fear of those who are different, and mastering the passions that stir within. The Spirit also transforms those deeper, hidden dangers that disturb our relationships, like suspicion, prejudice or the desire to manipulate others.

The Holy Spirit, on the other hand, brings to maturity within us the fruits that enable us to cultivate good and healthy relationships: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control" (Gal 5:22). In this way, the Spirit broadens the borders of our relationships and opens us to the joy of fraternity. This is also a critical yardstick for the Church. For we are truly the Church of the Risen Lord and disciples of Pentecost if there are no borders or divisions among us; if we are able to dialogue and accept one another in the Church, and to reconcile our diversities; and if, as Church, we become a welcoming and hospitable place for all.
POPE LEO

Tree Planting To Remember Pope Francis

To celebrate 10 years since The publication of Laudato Si and to honour the late Pope Francis, we will plant an Olive Tree in the grounds of St Mary's at 12pm on Sunday afternoon after the 11 am mass on the 14th of September. The Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Donal Roche who will help us plant the tree afterwards. We will celebrate only one mass in the parish that weekend to facilitate this special event

Laudato Si has been a very influential document across the world in promoting care for our common home and a sense of responsibility towards our brothers and sisters world-wide who are being adversely affected by climate change.
Please come along to honour and celebrate the amazing contribution that Pope Francis made in promoting "care for our common home".

Why an Olive Tree?
In the Bible, the olive tree carries significant symbolic meaning, representing peace, prosperity, and divine blessing. The olive branch, in particular, is a universal symbol of peace and reconciliation, as seen in the story of Noah and the dove.

A great big thank you to Jimmy O Gorman for the research ,and who will lovingly prepare the home for our tree!

Feast of Grandparents. July 26th

Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, the Patron Saints of Grandparents: The "feast of grandparents" reminds grandparents of their responsibility to establish a tone for generations to come: They must make the traditions live and offer them as a promise to little children. But the feast has a message for the younger generation as well. It reminds the young that older people's greater perspective, depth of experience, and appreciation of life's profound rhythms are all part of a wisdom hugely beneficial to us all Generations Prayer. God, you have blessed me indeed as the child I love has had a child I love with all that is within me. I pray that you watch over and protect my grandchild as you have always done for me. May their lives be long and healthy. May they have the courage to follow their dreams, and should the day come when I am no longer on Earth with them, may they look back upon me with fond memories, and may they never forget that they were and always will be deeply loved by me.

This matters to all of us – Friars, staff, volunteers and parishioners. At all the Masses this weekend one of the Safeguarding representatives will be addressing those attending Mass, so you will all know who they are and what they look like.

1 Committee, 2 Parishes

I've noticed recently, that when I go into a church in town or just a church that I haven't been in before, I find myself looking at the roof, looking for damp! Then my eye scans the floor, the windows and doors.

I may have entered to pray but my Health & Safety brain takes over, followed by building worries and any other problem that might be lurking. I do manage to shift back to the Prayer, but it takes an effort.

Foxrock and Newtownpark Parishes have very different churches and somewhat similar Pastoral Centres. And, I find myself looking at (Buildings) management issues. The Diocese has recently appointed a Health and Safety Co-ordinator who does a H &S check and gives us a report. We have the task of doing our best to remedy any faults.

SO, I want to set up a buildings/Health &Safety Committee for both Parishes. No point in inventing the wheel twice. The maintenance of our Churches and Pastoral Centres requires constant work. Prevention is far better than cure.

Have you just retired or do you have an interest in buildings? Could I please twist your arm to assist in REAL service to our Parish Communities? I need skills and knowledge! I hope to start in the New Year.

Fr Philip (A house built on sand…..)

ALL SAINTS, ALL SOULS
(A Prayer for children to say in November)

Remember those
Who kept the faith
Who always turned to pray
Who showed the love of Jesus
In their lives from day to day.

Remember those
This special time
Who live with God above
All Saints, All Souls,
And all our own,
Who live with God in love.

REMEMBERING THOSE WHO HAVE DIED YOUNG

Dear Parents...
by Christy Kenneally

I did not die young
I lived my span of life,
Within your body
and within your love.
There are many who have lived long lives
and have not been loved as me.
If you would honour me
then speak my name
and number me among your family.
If you would honour me
then strive to live in love
for in that love, I live.
Never, ever doubt
that we will meet again
Until that happy day,
I will grow with God
and wait for you.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Julia Ann(Julian) McCarthy. Suaimhneas síoraí dá hanam dílis! May she rest in peace!

If I Must Die
By Refaat Al-Areer

If I must die,
you must live
to tell my story
to sell my things
to buy a piece of cloth
and some strings,
(make it white with a long tail)
so that a child,
somewhere in Gaza
while looking heaven in the eye awaiting his dad who left in a blaze—and bid no one farewell not even to his flesh
not even to himself—
sees the kite,
my kite you made,
flying up above
and thinks for a moment
an angel is there
bringing back love.
If I must die
let it bring hope
let it be a tale.

Professor Refaat Al-Areer was a Palestinian Author and Poet who was killed along with many family members in an airstrike on his home on December 6th 2023.

34th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A
22nd November 2026

Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

The 'I' word!

We know this story well. The most important letter in 'it' is 'I'.
Jesus identifies himself with the people he is talking about. He doesn't say people were in prison and you visited them, or sick or naked. He says I who am in prison, sick or naked. It's even more than being a brother or sister of Jesus. He identifies with each of us especially in need. Created as we are in the image of God, Jesus sees right through us to see God. God is the divine life of God in each person.

That makes the difference. We don't help the needy person only because he or she is needy, but because each is in the image of God and Jesus sees him or her and says 'that's me.'

This can be a programme for life. For the young - can you make a decision for your life that includes deep care from your love of those in need? For those in their busy lives already and who have chosen their way - how can you show deep care for those in need. For the elderly - can you pray for those in need each day and encourage those more active to care for them?

Did you feed the hungry,
give drink to the thirsty,
welcome the stranger,
care for the sick and
visit the prisoner?
Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come -
The reign of equality, justice, peace and love.

ON THE DEATH OF THE BELOVED
By John O'Donohue (1956-2008)

Though we need to weep your loss,
You dwell in that safe place in our hearts,
Where no storm or night or pain can reach you.
Your love was like the dawn
Brightening over our lives
Awakening beneath the dark
A further adventure of colour.

The sound of your voice
Found for us
A new music
That brightened everything.
Whatever you enfolded in your gaze
Quickened in the joy of its being;
You placed smiles like flowers
On the altar of the heart.
Your mind always sparkled
With wonder at things.

Though your days here were brief,
Your spirit was live, awake, complete.
We look towards each other no longer
From the old distance of our names;
Now you dwell inside the rhythm of breath,
As close to us as we are to ourselves.
Though we cannot see you with outward eyes,
We know our soul's gaze is upon your face,
Smiling back at us from within everything
To which we bring our best refinement.

Let us not look for you only in memory,
Where we would grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence,
Beside us when beauty brightens,
When kindness glows
And music echoes eternal tones.
hen orchids brighten the earth,
Darkest winter has turned to spring;
May this dark grief flower with hope
In every heart that loves you.

May you continue to inspire us:
To enter each day with a generous heart.
To serve the call of courage and love
Until we see your beautiful face again
In that land where there is no more separation,
Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,
And where we will never lose you again.

CHRIST THE KING - SUNDAY 22ND NOVEMBER 2026

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King.
This feast reminds us that Jesus came among us to serve and not be served.
The best way of showing our loyalty to him is serve each other.

First Reading: (Ezek.34: 11-12.15-17): God is portrayed not so much as a judge of his people but as someone who cares for them.

Second Reading: (1Cor. 15:20-26.28): At the end of time Christ will reign as universal king. Gospel: (Mt. 25:31-46): We don't know how the last judgement will happen but we do know on what they will be judged.

REFLECTION: In the evening of our lives we will be examined on love. Mother Teresa said: The biggest disease in the world today is the feeling of being unwanted. And the greatest evil in the world is the terrible indifference towards our neighbour. Lord, open our hearts when they are closed and warm them when they are cold, so that we may produce the fruits of love and be found worthy of belonging to our neighbour.

FESTIVE AFTERNOON TEA: ST. MOCHTA'S PARISH IS HOSTING A FESTIVE AFTERNOON TEA IN OUR PASTORAL CENTRE ON SATURDAY 28TH NOVEMBER BEGINNING WITH MASS AT 12 NOON. THERE ARE ONLY 60 TICKETS AVAILABLE AT €15 EACH. TICKETS ARE ON SALE FROM ST. Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe - 22nd November '26

Thought for the day

As the final Sunday of the liturgical year, this feast serves as the ultimate destination of our spiritual journey: acknowledging that Christ has the final word over history, human suffering, and our daily choices.

When we think of a king, we imagine crowns of gold, massive armies, and fortresses of absolute power. Christ entirely upends this human expectation.

His crown is woven from thorns. His palace is the open hillside. His royal throne is the wood of the Cross. He pours out His own blood for us. He rules not by fear or coercion, but by an unconditional love that invites us to follow Him willingly.

Prayer

"Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, rule over my heart, my mind, and my actions today. Teach me to serve as You served, to love as You loved, and to recognize Your face in the poor and the forgotten. May Your kingdom of justice, love, and peace come alive in me. Amen."

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

A FEAST FIT FOR A KING

When I read the gospel for this Sunday I am always reminded of a particular evening I spent in Paris when I was stationed there in the early years of the millennium. This particular evening I had arranged to meet with a friend to go for a meal. Where we had arranged to meet was a busy street with wide footpaths. Much of the footpaths were covered by chairs and tables, extending out from various eating places, for the benefit of those who needed to smoke with their meals, and so couldn't eat indoors. I had arrived early for our meeting, and for reasons beyond his control my friend ended up being somewhat late. So I was left standing around for some time on a cold November evening.

I don't know how you feel about it, but sometimes when I'm standing around an area for a little period of time I begin to feel somewhat self-conscious – do people think I'm up to no good, that I'm casing some joint or other, or waiting for an opportunity to mug somebody? I know it's a crazy way to think, but I suppose it's healthier than contemplating a sticky end for whoever's kept me waiting! Anyway, on this occasion I didn't get much opportunity to indulge in such thoughts, as my attention was attracted to a man who was begging on the street. He was quite tall, somewhat unkempt, and really not being overly intrusive. He spotted two young ladies who had just sat down on a bench nearby – how they could do it in sub-zero temperatures, I don't know – and who were eating some take-away food, and clearly enjoying the food and the chat.

He approached them with his hand out. They looked up from their food, and to my surprise and admiration, instead of looking irritated, as they might well have, they actually handed over the food they were eating and clearly enjoying. And then, to my further surprise, instead of going off to eat it somewhere, he sat down on the bench beside them. Yes, I wasn't too surprised when the two ladies decided it was time to move on – in fairness, probably because they were beginning to feel the cold.

It does my heart good to see such spontaneous acts of kindness. It also makes me a little ashamed of how small-minded I can be at times myself. I couldn't help but think of the words of today's Gospel – "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink?" Living in a world where bad news seems to get all the attention, it's nice to see such instances of all the lovely positive things that happen quietly in the background.

Our gospel today reminds us that there's no need to feel overwhelmed by all the evil that the media feed into our homes each day, almost giving us a sense that there's nothing we can do. There are plenty around us who need food and drink, for body and soul; there are plenty who need to be welcomed, to be clothed, to be visited. Why do we hesitate? Could it be that I didn't recognize the King that evening in Paris? It's not by chance that this is the gospel passage that we read for the feast of Christ the King, as this is how the King chooses to be fed, clothed etc. – "you did it to Me".

I don't know who the young ladies were – I don't know if they have ever been inside church, temple or synagogue. But if that's their habitual outlook on life, they need have no worries. Such were my thoughts as I later tucked into a nice hot meal, in warm comfortable surroundings! Safe from anyone asking me to share?

Catechetical Corner - The Servant King

Our Celtic ancestors referred to this time of year around November, or Samhain, especially at the start of the month, as a 'thin time'. It was a time, they believed, that the veil which separates this world from the next was at its thinnest and that our deceased loved ones were, at this time of year, very close to us. It was this belief that gave rise to the practice of Halloween and also to the practice of praying for our dead, most especially, in November. But for Catholics, the veil that separates this world from the next, or earth from heaven, is not only at its thinnest it is in fact ripped asunder every time we attend Mass. At Mass we not merely get a glimpse into Heaven, we are brought into Heaven and into the very presence of the King. We are present at the marriage feast of the Lamb (Rev. 19:7-8). We are permitted to join with the hosts of Heaven as they worship GOD crying "Holy, Holy, Holy". (Rev. 4:8 & Is. 6:3) As we come to the end of the Church's liturgical year we are reminded of the start of the year, we are reminded of the birth of the King. We are also reminded of His death. And we are reminded of the life that He lived. The Kingship that He espoused was not one that, as citizens of the world, we would be familiar with, "My kingdom is not of this world…" (Jn.18:36) The kingship, the leadership that He espoused was something very different: "Do you know what I have done to you?" He asked after performing the most menial of tasks, foot washing, "…I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you." (Jn.13: 12-15). Although He is a great King, "...the Ruler of the kings of the earth." (Rev. 1:5). He is also the servant king who washes His disciples feet and commands us to do likewise. As the song goes: "This is our God, the servant King, He calls us now to follow Him…"

PRAYER

Pray God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us your Son, the beloved one who was rejected, the Saviour who appeared defeated. Yet the mystery of his kingship illumines our lives. Show us in his death the victory that crowns the ages, and in his broken body the love that unites heaven and earth. We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son. Amen.

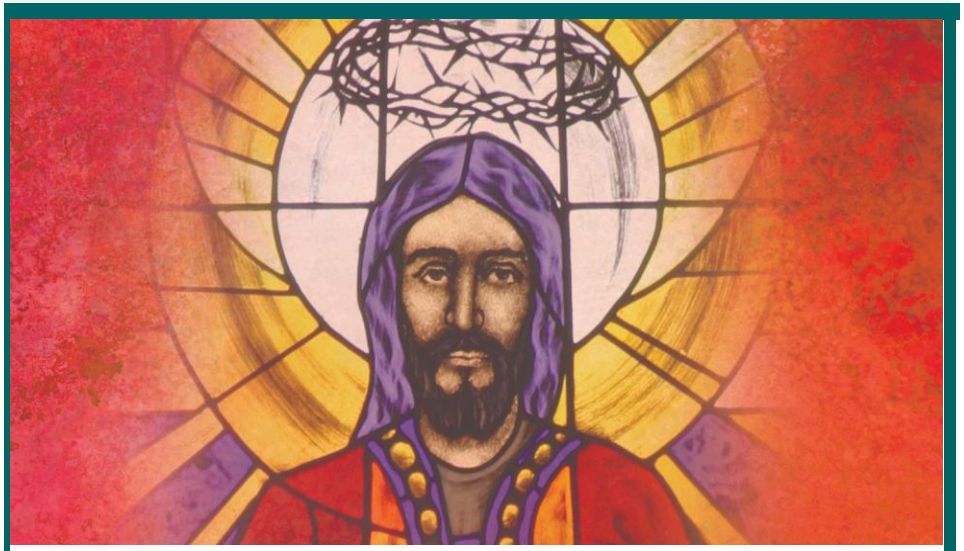
Our Parish

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
SUNDAY 22ND NOVEMBER 2026



The Kingdom of God is a space. It exists in every home where parents and children love each other. It exists in every region and country that cares for its weak and vulnerable. It exists in every parish that reaches out to the needy. The Kingdom of God is a time. It happens whenever someone feeds a hungry person, or shelters a homeless person, or shows care to a neglected person. It happens whenever we overturn an unjust law, or correct an injustice, or avert a war. It happens whenever people join in the struggle to overcome poverty, to erase ignorance, to pass on the Faith. The Kingdom of God is in the past (in the life and work of Jesus of Nazareth); it is in the present (in the work of the Church and in the efforts of many others to create a world of goodness and justice); it is in the future (reaching its completion in the age to come). The Kingdom of God is a condition. Its symptoms are love, justice, and peace. Jesus Christ is king! We pray today that God may free all the world to rejoice in his peace, to glory in his justice, to live in his love.

WHY SUNDAY MATTERS…..
A Word on Silence

Silence is one of the most essential elements of the Mass. Both our own interior silence and the shared external silence in the church building during and between the readings, help us to really listen to God speaking to us and to begin to hear what God is saying to us. Silence creates a space for God. catholicbishops.ie

The physical encounter with Jesus in receiving the Eucharist while present at Mass cannot be replaced by tuning in on webcam. Understandably many are housebound due to ill health and mobility restrictions, but some of us get comfortable at home, listening to Mass as we do household chores or even eating our breakfast. If we truly cannot attend Mass in the church, the right environment should be created in the home, a sacred space of silence to wholeheartedly participate in the Mass.

November's Twilight

When autumn's final leaves fall to the ground,
And quiet twilight brings the evening chill,
November holds a stillness all around,
Where memories of loved ones linger still.

We light a gentle candle in the night,
And speak their names with gratitude and grace,
For love outlasts the fading of the light,
And keeps them ever near in heart and place.

So let November's twilight softly fall,
With gratitude for every shared embrace;
For those we keep in heart are never far,
And memory gives them an eternal place.

"In all four Gospels Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Many of you will know the Church of Christ the King in Cabra which is dedicated to today's feast day. It was opened in October 1933 by Archbishop Byrne. Outside the church, there is a striking statue of Christ the King which was sculpted in Trieste. It's a very grand statue which I am sure has made a strong impression on parishioners over the years. This morning we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King which is the last Sunday in our Liturgical Year. This feast was instituted on its current date as a Solemnity by Blessed Paul VI in 1969. Next week is the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the new church year. In our Gospel today, we are presented with the parable that we have come to know as the sheep and the goats. It appears at the end of Matthew's gospel and also near the end of the life of Jesus, when he was confronted with the scribes and pharisees. The possibility of salvation, of keeping the inheritance of the reign of God, depends on the practice of justice and mercy for those who suffer from different needs. Jesus says in Chapter 18 of St John's Gospel: "Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice." In all four Gospels Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?" Jesus is indeed a King is this story but, from a human point of view, is a very unusual King. He rules from the cross and his gifts to us are forgiveness, mercy, and eternal life. The crown that Christ wears is a crown of thorns. The kind of Kingship that Jesus is talking about is very different to what we might regard as a brash regal figure with great powers ruling over a large territory. In fact, it is the complete opposite. Jesus's power of love can be seen in the way he forgives, shows mercy and is open to everyone. In Luke 17:21 " Jesus tells us that" the kingdom of God is among you". So, as we come to the end this Church year let us reflect on the presence of Jesus in our lives, what direction they are taking and how we can become more in tune with what Jesus may be asking of us as we approach the Season of Advent. St Paul tells us in Chapter 12 of the Letter to the Corinthians to "Be ambitious for the higher gifts". In other words, as Church or as Christian people, we should not always settle for the status quo but be prepared to look for new ways to share the Gospel message with our parishes and our communities. It's a good challenge for us all as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. We should also remember today the words of Pope Francis who reminds us that "God, in his loving design, excludes no one." That is an important message of hope as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King.

40 HOURS ADORATION

FRIDAY, 4TH DECEMBER FROM 8.00AM – SATURDAY, 5TH DECEMBER UNTIL 12 MIDNIGHT

'ADOREMUS IN AETURNUM SANCTISSIMUM SACRAMENTUM' (Let us adore forever the most Blessed Sacrament) Gregorian Chant for Benediction. St. Charles Borromeo speaks as if this practice of praying for forty hours was very ancient; he refers it to the forty hours that Christ's Body remained in the tomb. The number 40 is also associated with the rain at the time of the Flood, years the Israelites spent on the way to the Promised Land, and Jesus fasting for 40 days before beginning his public ministry.[The 40 Hours Devotion is an experience cantered on inviting people to "face-to-face" time with Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament. It is a worthy devotion, one that helps the faithful encounter the Risen Lord in a personal way, nurturing their relationship with him. As St. Alphonsus Liguori once wrote: "Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us". Pope Leo has asked us to 'pray the rosary for peace with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict." He also said: "Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation".

The Rosary and Prayer for Peace with the lighting of Candles for Peace, will take place on the hour. If you wish to take part, please choose an hour by signing the Sheets which will be available at the back of the Church.
If you need further information, please contact: Roisin, Teresa or Derek through the Parish Office.

Order of Malta 'Knight-run' Homeless clothing appeal "Sox & Jox"

Thank you for the generous response to the appeal supporting the Order of Malta Knight-Run. In the winter months there is always an appeal for warm jackets, gloves, hats & Scarves. Summer clothes are NOT really appreciated as storage is quite limited. Toiletries are also appreciated throughout the year. Unfortunately for many who are homeless toothpaste/brushes/soaps etc are used only once and left behind. If you have any of those small little bottles of shower gel or shampoo from your recent stay away these are also appreciated. These can be left at the sacristy door in Saggart church and will be forwarded. Our volunteers meet each Thursday and have built up a regular clientele. Most are 'rough sleepers' though some are in regular sheltered accommodation. The beauty about the volunteers is that no body is judged and everyone receives at least a cup of tea and a sandwich.

Bethany Bereavement Support

Bethany Bereavement Support Group is a voluntary community and parish-based service. Our objective is to support the bereaved through the grieving process and our services are totally free of charge and confidential within the law. The name Bethany is derived from the story of Jesus' friends Martha & Mary who lived in a village called Bethany and grieved over the death of their brother Lazarus. Visit https://bethany.ie/.

Parish Partnership name

Throughout the diocese parishes are being called to come together in new forms. Grouping, cluster, amalgamation of parishes are the way ahead for the diocese that is reduced in priests to service local areas. We are privileged that the parish of Saggart, Rathcoole, Brittas and the parish of Newcastle have been working together for many years. A shared Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee has been in place for a number of years showing a shared interest and cooperation between the 'four districts'. We have been invited to discern a common name that has a resonance throughout the area.

One suggestion raised recently was "Mo Sacra" a saint from the 7th century who set up a monastery in what is currently Saggart cemetery. St Brigid's Well in Rathcoole, St. Finian's Well in Newcastle are other names. Have you any thoughts or suggestions on a name that could be used.

The Feast of Christ the King, Year A, 22ndNovember 2026. Bulletin No: 1646.

Christ the King:
A Different Kind of King

What does it mean to call Jesus our King? In a world where greatness is often measured by wealth, influence, power and success, the image of Christ as King challenges us to think differently. Jesus did not come to demand privilege or surround himself with riches. His crown was made of thorns, his throne was a cross, and his greatness was revealed through love, humility and service. He shows us that true leadership is not about being served, but about serving others.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that whatever we do for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick or those in need, we do for him. These words offer a practical challenge for everyday life. We do not need to perform great acts or change the world overnight. Sometimes the smallest gestures make the greatest difference: a visit to someone who is lonely, a helping hand to a neighbour, a kind word to someone who is struggling or simply taking time to listen.

Christ the King invites us to look at how we live and ask ourselves whether our actions reflect the values of his kingdom. It is easy to speak about faith, but the real test is how we treat others.

As we bring the Church's liturgical year to a close, may we recognise Christ as our King and allow his example of love and service to guide us in the year ahead.

The Archbishop, drawing on Pope Leo XIV, called for the Church to ask whether everything it does truly leads people to Christ and responds to real human suffering. The Archbishop's homily can be read at: https://www.dublindiocese.ie/st-laurence-mass-2026/
On Friday, November 13, Archbishop Farrell celebrated Solemn Vespers on the Vigil of St Laurence O'Toole, also at St Andrew's, Westland Row. Archbishop Farrell's homily at Vespers can be read at: https://www.dublindiocese.ie/st-laurence-vespers-2026/

POWER

Ezekiel 34: 11-12.15-17. Ps.22 1-3.5-6. Corinthians 15:20-26.28. Matthew 25: 31-46

It is important to note the difference between worldly and unworldly power. The former is in dreadful evidence these days. Satan may be out of fashion but he's not out of view. Unworldly, quieter power is what concerns us on this Feast of Christ the King. 'Quiet' doesn't mean 'ineffective'.

The three Scripture passages for today cover the whole spectrum of this unworldly power: Ezekiel portrays the gentleness and tender care of the good shepherd, part of which is to sort out the good from the bad. That's a warning that may surprise us. Paul focuses with forensic intensity on Jesus. Everything Christians stand for is rooted in the person and life of Jesus Christ and most of all, in his conquest of death. This is the power of truth. In spelling it out, Paul actually puts us in possession of the power to develop our lives, achieve lasting happiness and ultimately achieve eternal existence. That bears some reflection! Matthew's Gospel describes the full-blown power of Christ the King, "when the Son of Man will take his seat on the throne of Glory". The final judgment between good and evil – eternal life or absolute death - is the ultimate divine power. By contrast, the good human life is described as essentially simple, not beyond us, surely. Is it not the miracle of divine love? Look at the dandelion; it persists simply, quietly from the dark depths of the earth, to finally push through the tarmac or find the crack in the concrete, emerging triumphant, golden and smiling! We could learn from that! 'Quiet' doesn't mean 'ineffective' - it's real Power.

We celebrate the infinite power of God in every aspect of life, on this feast of Christ the King.

"Lord of Life, Earth, Sky and Sea; King of Love on Calvary".

Skerries Church Choir.

Building Hope

Your voice in shaping St Joseph's future

Dear friends,

In 2027, St Joseph's will hold its first Parish Assembly: a gathering of the whole parish community to reflect together on who we are and where we are going. It is part of Building Hope, the Archdiocese of Dublin's call to every parish to become a place of listening, co-responsibility and shared mission.

An Assembly is only as good as the listening that comes before it. So before we gather, we want to hear from you. The Parish Pastoral Council has put together a short survey of seven questions, which takes about five minutes. Your answers will directly shape what the Assembly discusses.

We especially want to hear from people who don't usually get asked: fresh voices and quieter voices, those at the heart of parish life and those at its edges. Every response counts the same.

You can complete the survey here:
https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/VZBVQDQ

Paper copies are available through the Parish Office.

Thank you for giving us a few minutes of your time and your wisdom.

With every good wish,

The Parish Pastoral Council

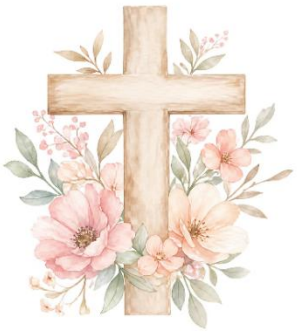
34th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

22nd November 2026



Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

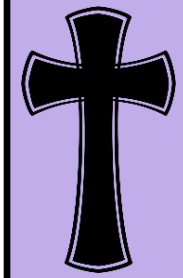
The 'I' word!

We know this story well. The most important letter in 'it' is 'I'.
Jesus identifies himself with the people he is talking about. He doesn't say people were in prison and you visited them, or sick or naked. He says I who am in prison, sick or naked. It's even more than being a brother or sister of Jesus. He identifies with each of us especially in need. Created as we are in the image of God, Jesus sees right through us to see God. God is the divine life of God in each person.

That makes the difference. We don't help the needy person only because he or she is needy, but because each is in the image of God and Jesus sees him or her and says 'that's me.'

This can be a programme for life. For the young - can you make a decision for your life that includes deep care from your love of those in need? For those in their busy lives already and who have chosen their way - how can you show deep care for those in need. For the elderly - can you pray for those in need each day and encourage those more active to care for them?

Did you feed the hungry,
give drink to the thirsty,
welcome the stranger,
care for the sick and
visit the prisoner?
Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come -
The reign of equality, justice, peace and love.



Sincere sympathies to the families of
