If you wish to have a deceased relative or friend who died elsewhere in the past 12 months, remembered at this Mass, contact Annascaul Parish Office by Wednesday November 25th. All whose funerals took place in the Parish will be automatically included.

Thought for the Day: What does God desire of us? This simple question is perhaps not asked frequently enough! It can be made quite personal: what does God want of me, from me? In the end, the answer has to be, in the words of the song, "all that I am," precisely because God loves all that I am. This will mean allowing ourselves to be loved. It will also mean responding with my whole self, including all the gifts of body, mind and soul that God has bestowed upon me. In the end, God does hope that we may be and become our true selves. Nothing less is adequate to God's own love for us. Prayer: We are truly grateful to you, God our creator and redeemer, for your many gifts. We ask your help that we may use all you have given us for your glory and for the good of our neighbour. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (www.tarsus.ie)

Reflection: Pope Leo XIV made a pilgrimage to Uruguay's national Marian shrine on 8th Nov. The unique Marian title of Our Lady of the Thirty-Three takes its name from the image of the 33 revolutionaries whose 1825 campaign sought to free the territory then known as the Eastern Province from the Brazilian Empire. The Assembly of Florida, which declared independence on 25th Aug. 1825, met beside the town's church, and its members venerated the Marian image preserved there. "This small image is linked to a decisive moment in Uruguay's history. In 1825, those who were fighting for the freedom of this land also turned to Mary, to place the beginning of their efforts under her protection. That gesture reminds us that the history of peoples, too, cannot be fully understood without reference to God," Pope Leo said. "Since that time, generations have come and gone, circumstances have changed, including the relationship of many Uruguayans to the faith. Yet she has remained here." The Pope shared a message of hope for mothers who feel the grief of seeing their children fall away from practicing the faith they were raised in. "I know that many of you carry a very specific sorrow. You taught your children to pray, and today they no longer do so. You used to attend Mass together, and it has been years since they entered a church. You spoke to your grandchildren about God, and now you do not know if those words left a mark. Sometimes you wonder if you did something wrong or if it was all futile," Pope Leo said in his homily. The pope pointed to the witness of St. Monica, who "prayed for years for a son who seemed to be drifting further and further from God, but she never stopped trusting in his grace." "Mothers and grandmothers: never tire of passing on the faith! Preach with your lives as well as with your words. Insist on prayer, love, and hope; insist on them in season and out of season (cf. 2 Tim 4:2). Do so with patience, without harshness or discouragement. Even if your loved ones seem far from God, continue to place them before him. Do not stop blessing them, accompanying them, and simply reminding them of what they once received," Pope Leo said. "There are doors that you cannot open, but God can," he added. In his homily, the pontiff also offered words of encouragement to fathers and grandfathers, urging them to imitate St. Joseph. "Dear fathers and grandfathers, young people need to see that you pray, receive the sacraments, treat your wives with respect, ask for forgiveness and live with integrity, even when doing so requires sacrifice. Children learn a great deal by seeing that their father can kneel before God without feeling that he is any less of a man for doing it," Pope Leo said, to loud applause from those gathered at Mass. "Your children and grandchildren need to see that the faith occupies a genuine place in the lives of the men in your family," the pope added. The pope celebrated an outdoor Mass with 50,000 people in front of the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Thirty-Three, the cathedral basilica of the Uruguayan city of Florida, on the morning of Nov. 8, the date of the country's annual national pilgrimage to the Virgin Mary, which is closely tied to Uruguay's historic struggle for independence from Brazil. At this beloved pilgrimage site, Pope Leo renewed the consecration of Uruguay to the Virgin Mary, first made by St. John Paul II in 1988, imploring God that through Our Lady's intercession "he may thwart the works of the evil one and preserve beloved Uruguay from whatever might lead it away from Christ."

God Bless. Fr. Gearóid Walsh, P.P.

REFLECTION: Please don't remember only the day I had to leave or let my final moment be the story that you grieve. Remember all the laughter, the ordinary days the love we shared so freely in quiet simple ways. I know your heart is aching I know you miss me too but I am not as far away as it may seem to you. I live within the memories that time can never take, within the love still left behind in every heart I shaped. So speak my name with gentleness let stories bring a smile and when the tears come, let them fall then rest with them awhile. Do not think you must be strong every single day grief is just love reaching out when words get in the way. And though my life on earth is done my love has not gone too for every life I touched still holds a piece of what was true. So carry me with tenderness but let your heart live too for every step you take in love keeps part of me with you.

Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

World Day of the Poor!

We often hear people say, "I haven't much to offer," But today's Gospel reminds us that we all have something to share. It may not be money or special talents. It may simply be the gift of listening, encouraging, caring or bringing happiness to someone else.
Today, the world Day of the Poor, reminds us that there are people around us who are lonely, worried or struggling to make ends meet. We may not be able to solve all their problems, but a kind word, a helping hand or a little time can make a real difference.
Today, November 15th, is also the world Day of remembrance for Road Traffic Victims. We remember all who have lost their lives on our roads, those who have been seriously injured, and the families whose lives have been changed by road accidents. We also remember those who care for and support them.
May we never take life for granted, and may we always look out for one another on life's journey.

Tax Rebate certs (Enduring Cert) for completion will be sent out during coming weeks. Please complete and return. They are valid for 5 years. Some parishioners completed them last year so that will suffice. The parish can claim back the tax on charitable donations of 250 and over. This amounts to approximate €8000 each year and it is invaluable to the parish. Thank you for your generous donations. Please return the forms as soon as you can.

Week beginning
22nd November 2026
Feast of Christ the King

Today is the Feast of Christ the King and the end of the Church's year. Jesus is the one True King and His Kingdom is a Kingdom of righteousness and peace. Unlike worldly kings who stand for power, wealth, war, Jesus' kingdom is based on the law of love; loving God and loving our neighbour in a spirit of giving and self -sacrifice. In the first reading from Ezekiel, we see that God is a shepherding king taking care of the lost and the injured sheep in his flock. The Gospel is taking up the same message of God caring for his people. Jesus has taken darkness and evil upon himself and conquered sin and death so that we could have eternal life with God. Our King has died for each one of us; His mercy knows no bounds if we seek His forgiveness. He has shown us by example how to live our lives in His greatness of service to the poor, the lonely the marginalized. He has identified Himself with the poor and needy saying, 'if you give to the least of my brethren, you did it to me ; he leaves us in no uncertain terms how important this message of love and self -sacrifice means to our acceptance in being part of the Kingdom of God. At the end of the age Jesus will come to judge the living and the dead, will we be part of the right kingdom? Will we have lived our lives according to His Law? Jesus has a burning desire to save all people; He continually invites us to follow him and be part of His Church to further the Kingdom of God, it's up to us to accept His call to love and forgiveness and self - sacrifice.

Do you know the purpose of Holy Mass?

The primary purpose of the Holy Mass is to worship God through participation in the re-presentation of Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection. The Secondary purpose is to receive Jesus in Holy Communion and thirdly to unite as God's Church sharing Faith and Thanksgiving.

Abide With Me
Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Nearer My God to Thee
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee
E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me, still all my song shall be,
nearer, my God, to thee;
nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee

Pope Leo in Latin America

At Mass in Buenos Aires during the past week, attended by 2.5m worshippers, Pope Leo spoke of the value of the Christian family: "Speak naturally to your children about Jesus and remain united to him. In the intimacy of the home, faith is passed on along with life itself, through the simplest gestures: a blessing before meals, a prayer before going to bed, forgiveness and mutual listening, grandparents teaching their grandchildren to pray, going to Mass on Sundays, and preparing for a retreat or a pilgrimage. Indeed, the family is a privileged place for coming to know and encounter Christ."

Thought for the Week: Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

Thought for the day: The image of the king is a foundational metaphor in the Bible, which in ordinary usage suggests power and glory. But even in the ancient biblical tradition, there are two significant modifications. According to an Old Testament vision, a king is meant to be a shepherd to his people, a true shepherd who cares for and who knows and even loves his sheep. According to a New Testament vision, Jesus our king rules paradoxically by loving service, humility and the gift of himself. This example and teaching of Jesus have lost none of their power. Prayer: Wake us up, O God, and rouse us from the slumber of the everyday that we may recognise you in every moment and in every person, each day of our lives. Amen. (www.tarsus.ie)

Pope Leo XVI on X: Works of charity that assist the needy create an oasis that quenches thirst, brings comfort, and renews those who live and work there, as well as those who come to visit.

Words of Welcome to Our Children

A very warm welcome to all the boys and girls from 1st and 2nd Classes of S.N. Cillin Liath and St Finian's National School, who are joining us at our weekend Masses. Through First Confession, you discover God's great love, mercy and forgiveness, and through First Holy Communion, you welcome Jesus in a very special way into your hearts and lives. To all our families, perhaps we might offer a few simple invitations as we accompany the children on this journey:

- Make time for prayer at home – even a simple prayer together at bedtime or before a meal can help children grow in their relationship with God.
- Come to Mass together – let the children see that faith is something we celebrate as a family and as a parish community.
- Talk about Jesus and the sacraments – encourage children to ask questions and share what they are learning in school and at home.
- Show kindness and forgiveness – help them recognise that living our faith is about how we treat one another each day.
- Keep the journey joyful – remind them that preparing for the sacraments is not simply about getting ready for a special day, but about growing closer to Jesus.

To all our children, families and teachers, thank you for being part of our parish community. We are proud of you! We look forward to sharing these special moments with you in the months ahead.

WATERVILLE GAA

SOUTH KERRY CHAMPIONSHIP 2026

As Waterville GAA prepares for the South Kerry Championship Final 2026, there is a wonderful sense of pride and excitement throughout our community. At our Sunday Mass, as we wear our club colours with pride, we remember in a special way all those involved in bringing the team to this stage. During these important days of preparation, we hold in our thoughts and prayers Team Captain Oran Clifford, Manager Eanna de Buis, all the players, the management team and their families.

We pray that the team will be blessed with strength and courage as they prepare for the final. May they take to the field with confidence & represent their club, parish and community with pride.

As Scripture reminds us:

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

— Philippians 4:13

Whatever the outcome, we are proud of the dedication, commitment and spirit that have brought Waterville to this special occasion. Go n-éirí go geal libh! Up Waterville!

REFLECTION

The person in misery does not need a look that judges and criticizes,
but a comforting presence.
Jesus looked at the ordinary people,
and seeing how needy they were,
he had compassion on them
and began to minister to them.
Compassion means that I suffer with you;
I accept into my heart the misery in yours;
I become one with you in your pain.
I may not be able to relieve that pain
but by understanding it and sharing it,
I make it possible for you to bear it.
Lord, give us warm and generous hearts
so that we may be agents of your compassion to others.

FINAL BLESSING

Heavenly father, you sent your Son into our world
To help us build a more just and humane world.
In working for a such a world we will enhance our own dignity and that of others.
We make all our prayers through Christ our Lord.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969

Message from Deacon Chris Lynch

Dear Friends ,
Last Sunday (November 8th), was the first anniversary of my ordination as Deacon. On behalf of my wife, Catherine, and our children, Madeleine and St John, and myself, I would to say a very sincere thank you to everyone in the parish for their support.
I am delighted to be with you all in Glenbeigh Parish. Thank you all so much for the very warm welcome since I started with you in February. In particular thank you to Fr Kieran who has been an outstanding support and encouragement to me both before and after ordination. I look forward to many years ahead with you all.

About Today
The beginning of the Advent season is coming closer, and the Liturgy invites us to look further into the future, towards the end of time, to be ready when the Day of the Lord comes.
O God,
from whose own abundance
all gifts and skills are lavishly bestowed, encourage us to use our talents
as generously as you have allotted them, so that, being faithful to your purpose,
we may become sharers in your glory.
We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.
Introduction to the Scripture Readings
Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31 — The different talents people possess are highlighted in today's readings. The first describes some of the gifts a woman can bring to marriage.
1 Thessalonians 5:1-6 — We're reminded that the Day of the Lord could come at any moment, so we must be on the watch.
Matthew 25:14-30 — The talents we receive are given to us for a purpose — to be used

Remembering Our Dead
November Masses & Evening prayer
Mass for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All List will be celebrated in Glenbeigh on this Monday evening 16th. And Monday eveining of 23rd.of November. At 7:30 pm.
Masses for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All Souls Lists in Glencar will be celebrated at 6 p.m. this Saturday evening 7th of November / and on trhe Saturday evening 21st. November.
At the Mass on Monday 23rd. November in Glenbeigh parishioners who died since last November whose requiems took place in the parish will be especially remembered. A candle in their memory will be brought to the sanctuary and placed on a stand before the Altar at the beginning of the Mass.
Please Collect your November Envelope at the back of the Church and return it in time for these celebrations.
I ask all Clubs and Organisations not to have their events clash with these November Masses for our dead; and the Saturday Evening Mass in Glencar and Sunday Morning

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS Matt 25:14-30
1. A gift given in love is given to be enjoyed, treasured, and used. Through fear, one servant failed to recognise the loving trust being shown to him and buried the talent. When have you found that overcoming fear helped you to make the most of opportunities in life?
2. On the level of our own personal life, faith is not given to us to be locked away, but to be 'traded' with. We trade with it when we believe in its value, trust it, and use it, bringing it into the experiences we have in daily life. Can you recall times when relying on your faith has brought you rewards?
3. Likewise with our own personal gifts and talents. We can fall into the trap of seeing these as our personal possession so that we can do with them as we like, rather than share them as gifts so that they can be multiplied. What is your experience of hoarding or sharing your own gifts? When did you feel most alive?
4. Pope Francis in his letter Evangelii Gaudium wrote, 'I invite everyone to be bold and creative in this task of rethinking the goals, structures, style and methods of evangelisation in their respective communities. The important thing is to not walk alone, but to rely on each other as brothers and sisters' (EG, 33).

Week of Witness 15 to November 22
Red Wednesday is an annual global day of prayer and solidarity to raise awareness of the persecution and discrimination faced by Christians around the world. It is part of ACN's annual Week of Witness (running from November 15 to November Today, over 360 million Christians experience high levels of persecution and discrimination worldwide. This includes violent oppression, government-imposed restrictions, societal discrimination, and social exclusion. We remember them in a special way this Week of Witness and Red Wednesday.

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus tells us the Parable of the Talents. We are all given different gifts and talents, in different measures. But these gifts are not simply for ourselves. They are given for the good of others and, ultimately, for God's glory. The Lord invites us to participate in His extraordinary work. Everything we have is pure gift, and when we generously share our time, talents and treasure God can work wonders through us. Sometimes even the smallest act of kindness can have consequences far beyond anything we could imagine. There is a wonderful story told about two teenage boys, Billy Graham and his friend Grady Wilson, who went to hear the famous preacher Mordecai Ham back in 1934. When they arrived, the tent was packed. Unable to find two seats together, they turned to leave. But an usher spotted them and called them back. "Come on, lads, I'll find room for you!" And he did. That evening, as the story goes, both young men gave their lives to Christ. They went on to become Christian preachers, bringing the message of Christ to millions around the world. But here's the remarkable thing. The real hero of this story isn't Billy Graham, his friend, or even the famous preacher. It's the usher. An ordinary man whose simple act of kindness had consequences he could never have imagined. And that usher could be you or me. A kind word, a helping hand, a little generosity, or simply being open to the prompting of the Holy Spirit could set something wonderful in motion, with consequences we may never see in this life. So, this weekend, let us pray that we may be like that unknown usher, attentive to the Holy Spirit and willing to use our gifts to lead others closer to Christ. As Mother Teresa beautifully put it: "I am like a little pencil in his hand. He does the thinking. He does the writing."

Why do we celebrate Holy Week? The purpose of Holy Week is to re-enact, relive, and participate in the passion of Jesus Christ. In Holy Week we relive with Jesus his road the Cross: the triumphant entry into Jerusalem; the institution of the Eucharist and the ministerial priesthood; his loneliness and agony in the garden as he is betrayed by the disciple Judas; his trial before the Romans and the Jews; his once and forever sacrifice upon the Cross; the emptiness of a world where Christ appears lost; and his glorious Resurrection on Easter. Christians have been observing Holy Week since the earliest days of the Church. Early Christians would travel to Jerusalem at Passover to re-enact the events of the week leading up to the Resurrection. The earliest accounts of Holy Week were recorded by Egeria in the 380s A.D. From her accounts we know that on Palm Sunday, crowds of Christians waved palm fronds as they processed from the Mount of Olives into the City. She also details how the community gathered on Good Friday at Golgotha to honour the wood of the True Cross and to remember the Crucifixion. Customs spread from Jerusalem to around the Christian world. And we do it this year in pray and participate in the Lord's suffering, death and resurrection.

All Saints Day - The Call to Love

Today we celebrate the great feast of All Saints. We all have our favourite holy women and men, our preferred intercessors, our favourite lives of the saints. Through reading and prayer, and the example of their followers, certain saints speak to us in ways that feel personal. But what binds these holy people into one single unity is love of God and love of neighbour

Every Christian is called to a life of sanctity. To put it in a more realistic language: we are called to live in a Christ-like way, to follow His precepts, to take up our cross, and to allow the Spirit to set us on fire with His love in this dark and often negative world. We are called to love, despite what we would sometimes rather do, and despite what the world instructs us, which is to blame, to judge and to condemn.

Choosing love on an everyday level can be difficult. Are we going to speak to that person who offended us? Shall we reach out to the outcast when everyone around us is ignoring them? What are we going to do about that person who is lonely? Have we heard about someone being bullied or oppressed… what shall we do about it?

The beatitudes give us the answer to these questions. They teach us to hunger and thirst for what is right, in a world of oppression and self-exulting fakeness. We should be making peace. We should be merciful. We should be gentle towards each other. We should be poor in spirit and let others come first.

We are created for that moment when we see God face to face, the moment we call the beatific vision. St John writes: "We shall be like Him, because we shall see Him as He really is." Through Christ, we have learnt that the answer to every situation is love.

Through the love of God, we choose to be like Him. This is the choice of sanctity. Turning to the Beatitudes, we begin to see that, in every moment we encounter, there is something of a foretaste of the beatific vision, a glimmer of heaven in this world below. And as Christ Himself assures us: "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Cistercian Reflection

All Saints Day Prayer

Dear holy saints of God,
we join our prayers of praise
to yours this day,
with you, we sing of God's goodness,
rejoice in God's mercy
and celebrate God's incredible love.
Teach us to live as you lived – always thinking of other,
always recognising our weaknesses,
always rejoicing in God's gifts,
always closely following Jesus.
Blessed are you, happy are you,
all you holy saints of God.
Pray for us that we, too,
may someday be among God's Holy Ones. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

A Chara, wishing you well.

MASSES FOR THE SOULS OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED: Thanks to everybody who has being attending the November Masses for the Souls of the Faithful departed. Please continue to attend our Masses for the Souls of the Faithful Departed on the November each Tuesday in Fenit Church at 10.00am and Thursday in Churchill Church at 7.30pm during November.

NOVEMBER ENVELOPES, LISTS & OFFERINGS: Thanks to everyone who has returned the November lists and offering. It is sincerely appreciated. If you have not yet done so, you may drop your envelope into the Presbytery letter. For those outside the Parish and who would like to hand in their November list and offering, envelopes are available at the back of the Churches.

MASS FOR THOSE WHO DIED DURING THE YEAR: Will take place on Saturday next, 21st November at 7.30pm in Churchill Church. If you wish to have someone from outside the Parish or connected to you remembered at the Mass, please give their names to our sacristans – Ann Daughton 087 9951601 or Patricia Murphy, 087 9414580. At the Mass a candle will be lit in memory of each person which you will be invited to take home with you.

DEFIBILLATORS: The defibrillators have arrived and will now be installed – one in each Church. Training will be held and instructed by the First Responders Group from Curraheen Church. Details will be available as soon as possible. I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Pat Harmon, Lisodigue and All Care Pharmacy, Mounthawk who very kindly donated the defibrillator for Churchill Church (which cost €1,400.00). This is a very generous gesture, and we express sincere thanks and gratitude on behalf of all parishioners. Mile Buiochas.

Prayer for the Dead for November

Into Your hands , O Lord,
we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life You embraced them
with Your tender love ;
deliver them now from every evil
and bid them enter eternal rest.
The old order has passed away ;
welcome them into paradise,
where there will be no more sorrow,
no more weeping nor pain,
but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

World Day of the Poor!

We often hear people say, "I haven't much to offer," But today's Gospel reminds us that we all have something to share. It may not be money or special talents. It may simply be the gift of listening, encouraging, caring or bringing happiness to someone else.
Today, the world Day of the Poor, reminds us that there are people around us who are lonely, worried or struggling to make ends meet. We may not be able to solve all their problems, but a kind word, a helping hand or a little time can make a real difference.
Today, November 15th, is also the world Day of remembrance for Road Traffic Victims. We remember all who have lost their lives on our roads, those who have been seriously injured, and the families whose lives have been changed by road accidents. We also remember those who care for and support them.
May we never take life for granted, and may we always look out for one another on life's journey.
