Triduum of Masses for Bishop Michael Router: As the diocese and parishes prepare to celebrate the joyous occasion of the Installation of Bishop Michael Router as Bishop of Derry on Sunday 20th September, a Triduum of Masses will be celebrated in parishes throughout the diocese, on Friday 18th, Saturday 19th and Sunday 20th September. In our parish, these Masses will be celebrated at 8am & 7.30pm on Friday, 10am on Saturday and at all the Masses on Sunday. All are welcome to attend as we come together as God's people to pray for Bishop Router and the people of the diocese, that we may walk together in faith and hope, guided by the Holy Spirit.

We thank God for the gift of Bishop Router and for his call to serve as Bishop of Derry. May he be blessed with wisdom, courage and compassion as he begins his ministry. May he be a faithful shepherd, a voice of hope, and a servant of unity and peace. May his ministry bear abundant fruit for the people of the Diocese of Derry, and may God guide and strengthen him in all that lies ahead.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 18:21-35

In today's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus how often he should forgive someone who sins against him. Peter suggests seven times, but Jesus goes beyond counting: forgiveness is not something we measure; it is a way of life.

Jesus tells the parable of the unforgiving servant. A man owes his master an enormous debt, far beyond anything he could repay. Yet when he asks for mercy, the master forgives the whole debt. This reminds us of the generosity of God's mercy towards us. But the servant then refuses to forgive someone who owes him a much smaller amount. Having received mercy, he fails to show mercy himself.

The message is challenging. We can receive God's forgiveness while still holding on to anger, resentment or hurt. Jesus reminds us that the mercy we receive is meant to be shared. Forgiveness does not mean ignoring injustice or pretending that hurt does not matter. Serious wounds may take time, prayer, wise counsel and appropriate boundaries. But we are invited to place our hurts in God's hands and not allow bitterness to have the final word.

At every Mass, we encounter God's mercy. Christ gives himself for us and calls us to extend that same love to others.

This week, perhaps we can bring one difficult relationship before the Lord and ask for the grace to take one step towards forgiveness. Forgiveness is not simply something God asks of us - it is something God first gives to us.

Lord Jesus, you have forgiven us more than we can ever repay. Teach us to receive your mercy with grateful hearts and to share it with those who have hurt us. Give us the grace to forgive, the wisdom to seek justice where needed, and the humility to place every wound into your loving hands. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: In today's gospel Jesus teaches a powerful lesson on forgiveness. We pray for the men called to priesthood that, as they celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation with their people, they will help them to know and experience the Lord who "...is compassion and love, slow to anger, and rich in mercy." (Responsorial Psalm).

The St Dymphna Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at St Eugene's Cathedral on Tuesday 15th September at 7.30pm. This Mass is to give thanks to God for positive mental health and to pray for those who are struggling with mental health issues and those who care for them.
